RE : 2017 COMMUNITY RECOGNITION AWARD

DATE : August 1, 2017

As we have done in previous years, the Fayette County Behavioral Health Administration Advisory Board will present the "2017 Community Recognition Award" to an outstanding community leader who has made a difference in the lives of people in recovery, children and adults with mental health needs, and/or individuals with intellectual disabilities. The nomination criteria, is as follows:

- Nominee should be a Fayette County resident.
- Nominee can be an individual, community organization, organized advocacy group, current or former employee or consumer.
- The nominee should have a direct linkage to the system of care in some form of collaboration.
- The reason for the nomination should be associated with significant positive outcomes in the lives of Fayette County residents and/or community system of care.

Nominations for the award must be submitted (on the form provided) to Fayette County Behavioral Health Administration (FCBHA), marked "Community Recognition Nomination", no later than September 8, 2017. It must include a complete description of why the nominee should be selected, as well as significant outcomes that benefited the system. The form and instructions can also be found on our website at <http://www.fcbha.org/Community.html>.

The Human Resource Committee of the FCBHA Advisory Board will evaluate and select a recipient from the nominations. The recipient will be announced and presented the award at a Board of Commissioners public meeting.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
